COVID-19: THE ULTIMATE TIPPING POINT FOR THE 21ST CENTURY!

Is our law ready for this “New Normal”?
And where do we go from here?

SYNOPSIS

As Malaysia continues to combat against Covid-19, our law does not rest upon a Procrustean bed. It grows to meet changing conditions with dynamism and rose to the challenge of what we call the “New Normal”.

- Temporary Measures for Reducing the Impact of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (Covid-19) Act 2020 (“Covid-19 Act”) – a little too soon too late?
- What does Covid-19 Act mean for you, how does it affect the business operations, transactions and deal with “new normal”? Is the Act sufficient or too much?
- At the cusp of the 4th Industrial Revolution, Malaysia aims to re-engineer the human experience and move towards advanced technologies and new business models to stay relevant and competitive. Is our law ready? Are our Courts ready to embrace with the progression, globalisation and digital transformation?

These are some of the throbbing questions that will be addressed during this interactive lecture session.
